Purple Pride

Vikings Continue New Stadium Drive

There was very little stadium discussion in St. Paul during the 2003 Legislative Session, as the debate was dominated by the state's $4.2 billion budget deficit. Stadium backers need the economy to show some improvement in order to advance stadium financing legislation.

The 2004 Legislative Session begins next February 2, and already the Vikings, Twins and football Gophers are preparing for serious stadium discussions at the capitol. All three organizations are buoyed by the comments and actions of Governor Tim Pawlenty who has said that it is time to resolve Minnesota's sports facilities problems.

URGENCY TO ADDRESS VIKINGS REVENUE SHORTFALLS

The Vikings will continue to tell the positive story about our contribution to Minnesota's economy, community and quality of life. We will continue to work with Governor Pawlenty and legislative leaders to develop a fair and responsible financing solution. The Vikings are operating with an extreme sense of urgency as the organization falls further and further behind the rest of the National Football League in stadium revenues. Minnesota needs to build a football stadium now, to keep the Vikings competitive and viable in this market.

BENEFITS FOR FANS AND THE COMMUNITY

The Vikings stadium vision promises many important benefits for both football fans and the community. Fans will enjoy a much-improved game day experience that includes easier parking, more tailgating, increased capacity, more seating options, more restrooms and concessions, better sightlines and wider concourses that reduce crowding. This world-class facility will also play host to hundreds of events year-round — including high school and college sports, soccer and many other community events. It will also host future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Fours.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The Vikings are urging fans and supporters to learn more about the football stadium issue and register your support with elected officials for a solution to this long-standing problem. Viking Children's Fund

While there have been many changes in the Vikings since our inception in 1961, one thing has remained constant and that's the support the organization has given to the community. The Vikings are proud of the dynamic growth and development of our Viking Children's Fund. Its mission is to rally the resources of the Vikings, the corporate community and our fans in support of the many needs of children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest. Since 1978, over $6.5 million has been raised. Over $3.75 has been allocated to research at the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics.

"Funding support to the University of Minnesota Pediatric faculty has been critical in bridging faculty research from early training years to successful competition for federal research grants," said Dr. Scott Giebink, the Interim Head of Pediatrics at the University of Minnesota. "This child health research has seen the development of methods to save the lives of children through improved lung support, new cancer treatments, discovery of mechanisms causing chronic kidney disease and genetic disorders of children. Without the support of the Viking Children's Fund, the Department of Pediatrics would not have achieved a top 10 ranking in federal research grant awards this year."

The Viking Children's Fund fundraising success is attributed to the strong dedication of Vikings fans, players, coaches, alumni, volunteers and staff. Thank you for your support.

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY - YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Viking Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $3.75 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In addition, the VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing funds toward youth development, family services and education support- a total of $6.5 million given back to our community.

Red McCombs
OWNER

In his first five seasons as the owner of the Minnesota Vikings, Red McCombs' Vikings have won both on and off the field. On the field the club is 47-33 (.585), been to the playoffs three times and the NFC Championship twice while off the field the team has set numerous records including season ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, suite sales and novelty sales. On January 10, 2002, McCombs named Mike Tice as the sixth head coach in the club's 42-year history.

In 2001, the Vikings attracted a record 513,344 fans (64,168 avg.) to the Metrodome during the regular season to break their season attendance record for the fourth straight season. His first three seasons as owner (1998-2000) marked the first time since 1974-76 that the Vikings have hosted a playoff game in three straight seasons.

In McCombs' magical first season with the Vikings in 1998, the club set new records on the field by going 15-1. McCombs restored "Purple Pride" to the community and to the football team as he watched the team advance to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. The Metrodome became the loudest stadium in the NFL. McCombs received FOX's Terry Bradshaw Award as the Owner of the Year and he also became the first owner to receive a turkey leg from John Madden following the Thanksgiving Day victory over the Cowboys (11/26/98) in his native state. Heading into the 2003 season the Vikings have sold out 54 consecutive games.

McCombs enters his sixth season in the NFL with a wealth of previous successful experiences in the sports field. McCombs brought the Spurs from Dallas to San Antonio in 1972 and sold his interests in the team to his partners in 1982 and purchased the Denver Nuggets. He sold the Nuggets in 1986. In 1988 McCombs bought all the partners' interests in the San Antonio Spurs and became the sole owner along with Gary Woods.

In McCombs' final four seasons as the owner of the Spurs the team went 207-121 (.631) and finished first twice and second twice in the Midwest Division of the NBA's Western Conference. The team had the biggest turnaround in NBA history between two seasons. The club's attendance figures nearly doubled in his five seasons with the club (8,462 in the season before he arrived in 1987-88 vs. 16,057 in a sold-out situation in his final season in 1992-93). In his final season with the Nuggets in 1984-85 the club finished 52-30 (.634) and advanced to the Western Conference Finals. McCombs got his first taste of sports ownership in 1951 with midget auto racing on a quarter-mile track. In 1953 he owned the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Class B Big State Baseball League.

McCombs was born in Spur, Texas in 1927. He attended Southwestern University and played football there before enrolling in law school at the University of Texas at Austin. McCombs moved to Corpus Christi to enter into the automobile industry in 1950 and has been involved in the field ever since. McCombs was awarded his first new vehicle franchise and became the youngest Edsel dealer in the United States in 1957 at age 30. In 1958 he relocated to San Antonio where he became successively General Manager, Partner and sole owner of Red McCombs Ford. In 1996, McCombs was inducted into the Automotive Hall of Fame.

McCombs and an associate, Lowry Mays, formed Clear Channel Communications in 1972. Today Clear Channel is the world's largest outdoor advertising company with operations in 36 countries and the world's largest radio station owner with over 1,100 stations including the Vikings flagship station KFAN in the Twin Cities. Clear Channel also owns or operates 22 television stations. McCombs is also the sole owner of McCombs Energy and Oil Explorative Company headquartered in Houston, Texas.

McCombs' leadership roles include Chairman of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce and the United Way. He also served leadership roles in many national, state and local organizations including San Antonio's World Fair, HemisFair. McCombs has served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Southwestern University where he has been honored as a Distinguished Alumnus and is past Chairman of the Board of University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. He has been honored with numerous recognitions including the San Antonio Citizenship Award and induction into the San Antonio Business Hall of Fame. McCombs was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and was named Minnesota Business and Opportunities Magazine Man of the Year.

McCombs has also received many sports related awards including induction into the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame and most recently he was selected as the Gold Medal Honoree for 2001 by The National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. McCombs' hobbies include collecting Western historical artifacts. McCombs has been an active booster of the University of Texas for many years and served as President of the Texas Longhorn Club. He and his wife, Charline, made the largest gifts to the University of Texas' Women's Athletic Department and their alma mater, Southwestern University. McCombs donated $50 million to the University of Texas Business School in the spring of 2000, which the University has now named the Red McCombs School of Business. McCombs initiated the Minnesota High School and College Coach of the Year Awards during the 2000 season.

This past year McCombs authored "The Red Zone-Cars, Cows, and Coaches-The Life and Good Times of a Texas Dealmaker" along with Mickey Herskowitz. McCombs did numerous book signings in both Texas and Minnesota.

Red and Charline make numerous visits to local charities and schools in the Twin Cities with players. They have also supported the University of Minnesota Women's Athletics Department. McCombs married the former Charline Hamblin in Corpus Christi, Texas in 1950. The couple and their three daughters, Lynda, Marsha, Connie, and eight grandchildren reside in San Antonio.

Charline McCombs

While in the Twin Cities, Charline has visited the University of Minnesota Children's Hospital and the Ronald McDonald House with numerous Vikings players and staff members. She has been involved in many community activities including reading stories at local elementary schools and ringing the bell for the Salvation Army over the holidays. Charline hosts an annual Women's luncheon for women staff members and players, coaches and staff members' wives. In 1999, she co-hosted the University of Minnesota's "Texas Tuxedo" event that raised over $300,000 for the Women's Athletic Department. She serves on the Board of Directors of Las Casas Foundation, which is dedicated to restoring and preserving downtown San Antonio treasures, i.e., The Majestic Theater and The Empire Theater, which carries her name. She has long been involved in cancer research and awareness programs, having served on the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Board. Charline is currently on their National Advisory Board. Gary Woods
PRESIDENT

In five seasons with the Vikings, Gary Woods has guided the club in new directions. Under the direction of Woods, the team also had its fourth straight record year for corporate sponsorships, suite sales and novelty sales. During Woods' tenure, the team has advanced to the playoffs three times, been in the NFC Championship Game twice, and set numerous team and individual records. The Vikings have broken their all-time attendance record in four-of-the-past-five seasons. In 2001, the Vikings attracted a record breaking 513,344 fans (64,168 avg.) to the Metrodome during the regular season.

For the 1999 season, Minnesota increased its season ticket base by over 16,000 seats (59,500 in '99 vs. 43,472 in '98). The Vikings have sold out all 54 games (pre, regular, post-season) since Woods has been associated with the team. The Vikings currently have a waiting list for season tickets. In his first season with the Vikings in 1998 the team set a club record with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. The 1998-2000 seasons were the best three-season stretch (36 wins) in the 41-year history of the franchise. Those three seasons also marked only the third time in team history that the Vikings have hosted a playoff game in three consecutive seasons.

Woods was named to his current position July 28, 1998 when the National Football League unanimously approved the new ownership of the Vikings. He has been associated with Vikings owner Red McCombs for the last 25 years.

Since 1979 Woods has been the President of McCombs Enterprises, the holding entity for the McCombs family investments. The company headquarters is based in San Antonio and includes automobile dealerships, oil and gas exploration, real estate investments, broadcasting, ranching and others.

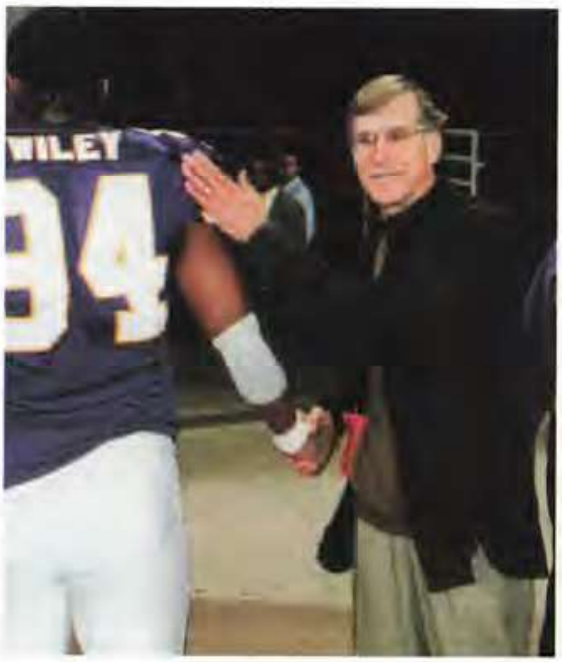
Woods is involved in numerous professional organizations and societies and regularly attends seminars in those disciplines as a student and an instructor. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Ilex Oncology Inc., the Cancer Therapy and Research Center, and the Argonaut Group.

Woods served as the President of the San Antonio Spurs of the NBA from 1988 to 1993. While with the Spurs, he helped direct the club to two first place finishes and two second place finishes in the Midwest Division of the Western Conference. In October of 1988 he moved into an ownership position with the club with a 15 percent share of the team. Woods was active in the Spurs' marketing programs and the development of the not-for-profit Spurs Foundation, the team's charitable arm. In his five seasons with the club, Woods helped the team's attendance figures nearly double (8,462 in the season before he arrived in 1987-88 vs. 16,057 in a sold out situation in his final season in 1992-93).

Woods is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University (BBA) and Southern Methodist University (MBA). He has pursued doctoral studies at North Texas State University and has completed the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School. Woods is a Certified Public Accountant.

From 1965-70, Woods held several accounting and financial management positions in the Dallas corporate offices of Texas Instruments. In 1971, he moved to San Antonio as the chief financial officer for Associated Milk Producers. It was during his four years at AMPI that Woods became associated with McCombs and his varied business holdings. From 1975-78 he worked as chief financial officer at Wainoco Oil Corporation in Houston.

Woods, born in Lockhart, Texas in 1943, and his wife Glenda have a son, Mark, and a daughter, Kristin, and two grandchildren, Elijah and Olivia.



PACKING IN PURPLE PRIDE

Since joining the Minnesota Vikings as team president in 1998, Gary Woods has helped oversee one of the most successful times in team history on and off the field.

The team set attendance records four straight seasons (1998-2001) and has topped the half-million mark in home attendance in each of the past 5 seasons. The 2002 Vikings posted a total attendance of 512,517 for the 8 regular season home games, the 4th-highest in team history. The 64,285 fans who watched the team stop Miami's playoff hopes with a last-second 53-yard field goal by the ageless Gary Anderson in a 20-17 win ranks as the 3rd-largest home crowd in team history. The three largest home crowds in team history have come during the McCombs era of team ownership.

In 2003, the Vikings enter the season with a consecutive sell-out streak of 54 games (pre, regular and post-season) and the team has not been blacked out on television locally since Red McCombs bought the team.

Michael F. Kelly, Jr.
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Mike Kelly enters his fourth season with the Vikings, having had success both on and off the field. During his tenure the Vikings have won an NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. Kelly inherited an organization that faced significant challenges in its cash and salary cap positions. Under Kelly's direction, the Vikings have had three straight record years for corporate revenue, while reducing front office expenses to one of the lowest in the NFL and realigning the team's cash and cap positions.

Kelly was appointed Executive Vice President on February 22, 2000. Prior to his appointment Kelly worked as the team's chief legal counsel.

Kelly is responsible for all of the business operations of the team and serves on the board of and is very active with the Vikings Children's Fund. Kelly served on the NFL Security Task Force during the 2001, which evaluated and addressed safety issues at stadiums and facilities.

He serves on the Board of the Minneapolis Downtown Council, the Minnesota Opera, and the Page Education Foundation. In 2001, he joined the Board of Directors of Hunger Related Events. Founded by Kelly's friend, Wayne Kostroski, Hunger Related Events created the Taste of the NFL events, which have raised several million dollars for hunger related organizations located in NFL cities.

Kelly was selected by CityBusiness in 1999 as one of its "40 Under 40," recognizing future community and business leaders in the Minneapolis/St. Paul area. Kelly was also selected as a "Super Lawyer" and a "Rising Star" by his peers in the legal community in two surveys published by Minnesota Law and Politics.

Michael Francis Kelly was born in Detroit in 1961 and later moved to Edina, MN. He graduated from Edina West High School in 1979. Mike Tice
HEAD COACH

Mike Tice became the sixth head coach in the Minnesota Vikings' 42-year history on January 10, 2002. Tice has been associated with the team since 1992. He played tight end from 1992-93 and 1995, coached the tight ends in 1996 and the offensive line from 1997-2001. Tice added the title of Assistant Head Coach for the 2001 season. Tice is the first person to play and be the head coach for the Vikings.

In his first season as head coach in 2002, Tice led the team to three straight victories to end the season on a high note. It was only the seventh time in the team's 42-year history that they had won at least their last three contests. Two of the last three wins helped knock the New Orleans Saints and the Miami Dolphins out of the playoffs. The Vikings became the first team in NFL history to win a game on a two-point conversion (vs. New Orleans 32-31). The Vikings offense was second in the NFL, only trailing the Super Bowl runner-up Oakland Raiders (6,237 to 6,192 yards).

In 2002, the Vikings led the NFL in rushing (2,507 yards) for the first time ever and set team records for rushing touchdowns (26), yards per carry (5.3) and first downs (350). Randy Moss had a career high 106 catches while Michael Bennett rushed for 1,296 yards, the second highest total in team history.

In his last 19 years being associated with the NFL, Tice has only had three losing seasons. In his seven seasons as an assistant and head coach with the Vikings, the team has compiled a 65-47 (.580) record and has made the playoffs five times and the NFC Championship Game twice.

In five seasons coaching the Vikings offensive line, Mike Tice guided five different players (Matt Birk, Jeff Christy, Randall McDaniel, Todd Steussie, Korey Stringer) to 10 Pro Bowl appearances.

In 2001, the offensive line had five different starting lineups due to injury. Center Matt Birk made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. Tice also was made the interim head coach for the team's regular season finale vs. the Baltimore Ravens. Rookie running back Michael Bennett's 682 yards rushing were the third most in team history by a Vikings rookie.

In 2000, Tice oversaw the development of Birk at the center position. Prior to the 2000 season Birk had never started a game and by the end of the year he was named to the Pro Bowl. Also named to the Pro Bowl for the first time was right tackle Stringer. The offensive line helped Robert Smith break numerous team records including most rushing yards in a season (1,521) and most 100-yard games in a season (8). Smith also became the first Vikings running back to have four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The offensive line gave Daunte Culpepper enough time to throw for 3,937 yards and 33 touchdowns in his first year at the helm. Culpepper also set team season records for a quarterback for rushing yards (470) and rushing touchdowns (7). The Vikings established an NFL record by recording 30 straight games from 1999-2000 with over 300 yards of total offense, snapping a record held by the 1949-51 Los Angeles Rams.

In 1999, the offensive line made room for Smith to break a team mark for rushing yards (140) in a playoff game (vs. Dallas 1/9/00). Leroy Hoard led the club in rushing touchdowns with a career-high 10. With Hoard's 555 yards rushing, it was the first time since 1991 the Vikings had two backs go over the 500-yard mark. The Vikings offense finished the 1999 campaign ranked third in the NFL in total offense.

In '98, the offensive line paved the way for numerous NFL and Vikings records, including a League record for points scored in a season (556), and also set an NFL record for touchdown passes (41). The '98 team set Vikings records for total yards (6,264) and fewest sacks allowed in a 16-game season (25). The offensive line cleared the way for Robert Smith to top the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season with 1,187 yards on the ground. The Vikings rushed for over 100 yards in 13-of-the-18 games, including playoffs, and broke the 150-yard barrier in five contests. Three of the five starting offensive linemen (Steussie, Christy, McDaniel) in the 1999 Pro Bowl were Vikings. They became the first Vikings trio of offensive linemen ever selected to the Pro Bowl, let alone to start in the game.

In his first year coaching the offensive line in '97, Tice guided an offensive line that sent two starters to the '98 Pro Bowl, McDaniel and Steussie. The offensive line also enabled Smith to break the team record at the time for rushing yards in a season with 1,266. The Vikings offensive line was a big factor in the squad gaining a first down on 18-of-19 carries on third or fourth down with less than three yards to go in '97. In 10-of-the-16 games, the team rushed for over 100 yards. Tice's offensive line also finished 3rd in the NFC in sacks per pass play (17.4 attempts per sack).

In '96, in addition to his duties as the Vikings tight ends coach, Tice conducted some drills with the offensive tackles during practices. Tice was instrumental in '96 in the development of rookie tight end Hunter Goodwin, who started the season's last six games when Minnesota went 4-2 to capture a playoff berth.

During his 14 seasons in the National Football League not only did Tice catch 107 passes for 894 yards and 11 touchdowns, but he helped block for backs that rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season 5 times, including '92, when Terry Allen set a then Vikings season record with 1,201 yards, and '83, when Seattle's Curt Warner led the AFC with 1,449 yards.

The 6-foot, 8-inch Tice joined Minnesota's coaching staff in '96 after playing 3 seasons with the Vikings (1992-93, 1995). 10 years with Seattle (1981-88, 1990-91) and a season (1989) with Washington. He started in 109 of the 177 NFL games he played. In 2002, Tice was named the TE on Seattle's all-time team by Football News.

In '95 Tice re-signed with the Vikings on December 7 after injuries depleted the team's tight end corps. He played in the final 3 games, including a start in the regular-season finale at Cincinnati (12/24), where he caught 3 passes for 22 yards. Tice originally retired following the '93 season. Tice started 11 games in '93, when he caught 6 passes for 39 yards. In '92, Tice caught a career-long 34-yard touchdown pass in the final regular-season game against Green Bay (12/27).

With Seattle in '91, Tice caught a career-high 4 touchdown passes to become the first tight end in Seahawks history to lead the team in scoring receptions. In '90, Tice was released by Washington on the final cut of preseason then signed by Seattle on November 28. In '89, Tice signed with the Redskins as a Plan B free agent after catching 58 passes and starting 43-of-44 games for Seattle between '86 and '88. He posted a career-high 29 receptions for 244 yards in 16 starts in '88. In only 8 starts in '84, Tice caught 3 touchdown passes to set a Seattle season record for scoring receptions by a tight end. In '83, Tice helped the Seahawks advance to the AFC Championship Game, their best finish ever. Originally signed as a free agent quarterback by Seattle in '81, Tice switched to tight end his rookie year.

As a 2-year starter at quarterback at Maryland, Tice completed 71-of-140 passes for 928 yards with 5 touchdowns as a senior in '80. He threw for 896 yards and 5 touchdowns as a junior. When Tice was a senior the backup quarterback was future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason.

During his first season as head coach Tice had a weekly TV and radio show. On TV he was with Joe Schmit on "Sportswrap with Mike Tice" on KSTP-TV and on radio he was with Dan Barreiro on "Mike Tice Live" on KFAN.

Tice is extremely involved in the local community and with numerous charities. Tice serves as Honorary Head Coach for Special Olympics Minnesota. Mike, through the Viking Children's Fund, heads up the Tice Academic Team which provides post-secondary scholarships for area youth who demonstrate strong leadership skills. He initiated a player fine fund program "Fine Money for Fine Causes" which distributes the proceeds to area charities. Mike has joined his wife, Diane, and the Vikings Coaches Wives in supporting the Ronald McDonald House during the 2003 season. Tice continues his commitment to youth coaching through his own summer football camp, Mike Tice/United Way Youth Football Day and his annual National Football Foundation Youth Coaches Clinic at Winter Park. Among the organizations Mike has volunteered with include: American Cancer Society, Boy Scouts of American, Children's Miracle Network, African American Adoption Agency, St. Joseph's Home for Children, Gridiron Geography, St. Paul Public Schools-Principal for a Day, Play it Smart, The HIKE Foundation, Salvation Army/Nordstrom Holiday Giving Tree, Edina Football Youth Foundation, Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and Mentoring Partnerships of Minnesota.

Michael Peter Tice was born in Bayshore, N.Y. (2/2/59) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island. He lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. He was the recipient of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1987. His brother, John, was a tight end at Maryland and played for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. John is currently the Vikings' tight end/assistant offensive line coach, making Mike and John the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. Mike and wife Diane have two children, Adrienne (8/4/87) and Nathan (7/28/89).

Mike Tice is the 6th Head Coach in the history of the Vikings franchise and the only one that played for the team.

FINISHING STRONG

The 2002 Vikings finished the season with 3 straight wins for only the 7th time in the 42-year history of the team. The other times the team has finished on a 3-game winning streak were 1964, '70, '74, '93, '98 and '99.

The Vikings used their strong finish the season before to set themselves up the following season on several occasions. The 1971 Vikings went 11-3 and won the NFC Central, the '75 Vikings were 12-2 and NFC North champions, the '94 Vikings went 10-6 and won the Central, the '99 Vikings finished as Central Division runners-up at 10-6 and the 2000 team won the Central at 11-5 and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

Scott Linehan
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Scott Linehan enters his second season in Minnesota as offensive coordinator after serving 14 years as a collegiate coach. He adds the position of quarterbacks coach to his title for the 2003 season. The 39-year-old Linehan spent 14 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before coming to Minnesota during the 2002 offseason.

Linehan directed a Viking offense that led the league in several categories and produced several team records in 2002. The Vikings rushed for a team record 2,507 yards on the season, breaking the previous mark of 2,279 set in 1965, and also set a team record with 26 rushing TDs. Under Linehan's guidance the team finished second in the NFL in total yards per game (387.0) and led the league in rushing yards (2,507), rushing yards per game (156.7), and rushing yards per attempt (5.3). Minnesota also set a new team record for first downs in a season with 350, topping the old mark of 343 set in 1981. In Linehan's first year in the NFL, several Vikings set individual marks. Second-year RB Michael Bennett ran for 1,296 yards, which was the 2nd-best single season performance in team history, and was named to his first Pro Bowl. Randy Moss led the NFC with a career-high 106 catches for 1,347 yards and became the first player in NFL history to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark in each of his first five seasons. Moss was also named to his fourth Pro Bowl. Daunte Culpepper set team records for rushing yards by a quarterback with 609, breaking his own mark of 470 in 2000, and rushing TDs by a QB with 10, breaking his mark of 7 in 2000. RB Moe Williams set a new Vikings' record by rushing for a TD in 7 consecutive games, breaking Bill Brown's record of 6 set in 1968. Williams' 11 TDs on the season moved him into a tie for 3rd in Vikings' single-season history, matching Brown's total in 1968 and trailing the 13 that Chuck Foreman scored in 1975 and 1976 and Terry Allen totaled in 1993.

Although 2002 marked Linehan's first season coaching in the NFL, he had experience working with NFL-caliber quarterbacks before coming to Minnesota. Four of his proteges, Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Brock Huard, and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier, went on to be drafted by NFL teams.

Linehan spent the three seasons prior to joining the Vikings at the University of Louisville as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. During his tenure there, the Cardinals went to three straight bowl games, became the first team to win consecutive Conference USA championships (2000 & 2001), and had a Louisville quarterback named as the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year in each season (Dave Ragone – 2000 & 2001; Chris Redman – 1999).

In his first season with the Cardinals, Linehan helped Redman attain the NCAA career record for passes attempted (1,679) and completed (1,031). Redman also finished third all-time in career passing yards with 12,541 and won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 1999. Ragone would benefit from Linehan's coaching in 2000 and 2001 as he passed for more than 2,600 yards and 23 touchdowns both seasons.

Louisville posted three of the top six passing seasons in school history under Linehan's direction and had three of the top four single-season receiving marks. In his three years at Louisville, the Cardinals produced school records for wins in a season with 11 in 2001, and for wins in a two (20) and three-year (27) span. Linehan led Louisville to a 28-10 victory over BYU in the 2001 Liberty Bowl that helped propel the Cardinals to a top 20 finish in both polls to end the season.

Linehan was a member of John L. Smith's coaching staff during his three years at Louisville. He was reunited with Smith at Louisville in 1999 after serving on Smith's coaching staff during two tenures at Idaho (1989-90 & 1992-93). Linehan's ties to Smith go back to his playing days at Idaho where he lettered as a quarterback while Smith was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

Prior to his tenure at Louisville, Linehan coached at the University of Washington from 1994-98. He was the Huskies offensive coordinator his final three seasons and had additional duties as quarterbacks coach in 1998 and receivers coach from 1994-97. Brock Huard joined the list of quarterbacks that Linehan has developed as he set career records at Washington for passing yards (5,742) and touchdown passes (91). During Linehan's five seasons with the Huskies the team advanced to four bowl games.

Linehan broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant at his alma mater, Idaho, in 1988. From 1988-90 he worked as receivers coach and from 1992-93 he served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. Linehan tutored standout quarterback Doug Nussmeier during his second stint with the Vandals and helped Nussmeier earn several accolades between 1992-93. Nussmeier was the recipient of the 1993 Walter Payton Award, which recognizes the NCAA Division I-AA Player of the Year, and was a unanimous Division I-AA All-American as a senior after throwing for a career-high 33 TDs and just five interceptions. He was named Big Sky Player of the Year in 1992 by leading the conference in passing and total offense. Under Linehan, Nussmeier established career records at Idaho for passing yards (10,824), total offense (12,027) and touchdown passes (91).

In his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Linehan helped guide the Vandals to a 20-6 record. Idaho led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game) in 1993.

Linehan spent the 1991 season as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas before returning to his alma mater in 1992.

Linehan played quarterback at Idaho from 1982-86, guiding the Dennis Erickson-coached Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship in 1985 and Division I-AA playoff appearances in 1984, '85 and '86. He finished his playing career with a 32-16 record as a starter and was 547-of-947 passing for 7,018 yards. Linehan signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 before a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside, WA (9/17/63), Linehan is married to the former Kristen Browitt. They are the parents of three sons – Matthew (11/13/94), Michael (9/24/96), and Marcus (8/22/00).

Linehan's Background
Player: Idaho 1982-86.
Coach: Idaho 1988-90, Nevada-Las Vegas 1991, Idaho 1992-93, Washington 1994-98, Louisville 1999-2001, Minnesota Vikings 2002-present.

George O'Leary
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

George O'Leary takes over as the Vikings defensive coordinator after spending his first season with team as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line. O'Leary came to the Minnesota Vikings after a very successful tenure as the head coach at Georgia Tech. O'Leary, a native of Central Islip, NY, was Vikings Head Coach Mike Tice's high school football coach at Central Islip High.

In 2002, O'Leary helped coach the Vikings defensive line into becoming the strength of the Vikings defense. As Assistant Head Coach he was a sounding board for first-year head coach Tice for such things as practice planning and team issues among others. Under O'Leary's direction defensive tackle Chris Hovan emerged as one of the top players in the game at his position. He finished the season with a team-high 36 quarterback hurries and was selected to the Sports Illustrated All-Pro team. The Vikings rushing defense moved up to 10th in the NFL (was 30th in 2001) behind the strong play of Kenny Mixon who finished the season with a defensive line-high 82 tackles.

O'Leary was the head coach at Georgia Tech from 1994-2001 and amassed a 52-33 record while leading the Yellow Jackets to Bowl appearances the last five seasons. The five Bowl appearances were the second most in school history and the most since Bobby Dodd led the Yellow Jackets to six straight Bowls from 1951-56. Over the last four seasons he led the team to a 34-14 record (.708). O'Leary returned to Georgia Tech in 1994 as the team's defensive coordinator and took over responsibilities as the head coach for the final three games of the season. He was named the winner of the 2000 Bobby Dodd Award as the National Coach of the Year and was named the Atlantic Coast Conference's top coach in 1998 and 2000. O'Leary left Georgia Tech and became the head coach at Notre Dame in December 2001.

In 2001 O'Leary led Georgia Tech to a 7-5 record and a berth in the new Seattle Bowl. From 1998-2000 he led the Yellow Jackets to a 27-9 record including two second place finishes and a tie for the ACC title in 1998. Quarterback Joe Hamilton (1996-99) finished as the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy during his senior season (1999).

O'Leary served as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and '93. In 1992 the defense had 51 sacks, which at the time was the fourth best in team history. The Chargers won the AFC West in 1992 with an 11-5 record. While with the Chargers, O'Leary helped turn a team that went 4-12 in 1991 into an 11-5 club that won the AFC West in 1992 and made the club's first playoff appearance since 1983. O'Leary tutored DE Leslie O'Neal to a starting spot in the Pro Bowl after he posted 17.0 sacks, tied for the 2nd-best single-season total in Chargers history. The 1992 Chargers posted dramatic improvements on defense from the 1991 team, allowing 101 less points, 342 to 241, and increasing the team total for sacks from 28 to 51, over 3 per game. The San Diego front also forced opponents into 25 interceptions on the season.

The Chargers hosted Kansas City in 1992 Wild Card Playoff action and O'Leary's troops responded, shutting out the Chiefs 17-0. The game was the first AFC playoff shutout since 12/26/70 when Baltimore shut out Cincinnati 17-0. The game remains one of only eight shutouts in AFC playoff history.

O'Leary's first stint at Georgia Tech came from 1987-91 as the defensive coordinator/defensive line coach. The team finished 11-0-1 in 1990 and won the National Championship. Current Vikings linebacker coach Brian Baker was also on the Yellow Jackets coaching staff at the time.

O'Leary received his first coaching job at the collegiate level at Syracuse (1980-86). He coached the defensive line and also was the assistant head coach his final two seasons.

O'Leary started his coaching career at the high school level. From 1968-76 he coached at Central Islip (NY) High School (1975-76 as head coach) before taking over as the head coach at Liverpool High School (NY). He posted a 37-8-1 record in five seasons including a perfect 10-0 season in 1979.

O'Leary also coached Vikings tight ends/assistant offensive line coach John Tice at Central Islip High School and former NFL defensive lineman Tim Green, who is now a FOX broadcaster and renowned novelist at Liverpool High School and at Syracuse.

George Joseph O'Leary was born in Central Islip, NY and attended Central Islip High School. He attended the University of New Hampshire and earned his degree in physical education. George and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Chris and Trish, and two sons, Tim and Marty. George and Sharon reside in Eden Prairie, MN.

DEFENSE ON THE RISE

The 2002 Vikings achieved one of their biggest goals on the defensive side of the ball- getting better against the run. The Vikings ranked 10th in the NFL against the run in '02, a dramatic improvement from the #30 ranking the team held in 2001.

The addition of LDE Kenny Mixon, MLB Greg Biekert, WLB Henri Crockett and moving Corey Chavous to FS helped achieve that goal along with the continued improvement of DT Chris Hovan. In his 3rd NFL season, Hovan was named All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and honored as a 2nd-Team All-Pro by Associated Press.

The defensive improvement in 2003 will continue under new coordinator George O'Leary, who tutored the defensive line in '02. The acquisition of veteran CB Denard Walker in free agency and #9 draft pick Kevin Williams continues the Vikings commitment to an improved defense.

Charlie Baggett

WIDE RECEIVERS

Charlie Baggett enters his fourth season with the Vikings as the wide receivers coach in 2003 and brings with him 26 years of offensive coaching experience at both the college and pro levels.

In 2002, Baggett coached Randy Moss, who had a career-high 106 catches and 1,347 yards receiving. Those numbers each led the NFC while Moss was named to his fourth Pro Bowl. Baggett also helped develop D'Wayne Bates, who had career-highs in receptions (50) and receiving yards (689), and rookie Kelly Campbell, who had three touchdown receptions down the stretch for the Vikings. With the help of the talented Vikings' receivers the team finished number two in the NFL in total offense.

In 2001, Baggett coached Moss, who had 82 catches, 1,233 yards receiving and his fourth straight season with 10 or more touchdowns (he had 10). Cris Carter had 73 catches for 871 yards. It was his ninth consecutive season with 70-or-more receptions.

In his first season with the club in 2000, Baggett had the pleasure of coaching receivers Carter and Moss. Both players were selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Moss set a team record for receiving yards (1,437) in a season and led the NFL in touchdown receptions (15). Moss also was the only Viking named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team.

Baggett spent the 1999 season as the wide receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers, where he coached two receivers over the 1,000-yard mark (Antonio Freeman-1,074 and Bill Schroeder-1,051). Both Freeman and Schroeder had 74 catches. The Packers finished seventh in the NFL in passing. Baggett served on the Green Bay staff with Vikings secondary coach Chuck Knox, Jr.

Prior to coaching at Green Bay, Baggett enjoyed his second stint at Michigan State, where he coached from 1995-98, serving as associate head coach and also tutoring the wide receivers under Head Coach Nick Saban. Both Derrick Mason and Plaxico Burress were named All-Big Ten receivers during Baggett's tenure. Baggett also coached Muhsin Muhammad at MSU, who led the NFC in receptions for the Carolina Panthers in 1999.

Baggett's first coaching position in the NFL was with the Houston Oilers (1993-94) as wide receivers coach. In '93 three of his wide receivers (Webster Slaughter, Ernest Givins and Haywood Jeffires) ranked among the AFC's top 12 receivers. The Oilers won the AFC Central in '93 with a 12-4 record. The 12 wins were a then franchise record.

Prior to his work at Houston, Baggett enjoyed 10 seasons at Michigan State (1983-92) under then Head Coach George Perles, overseeing wide receivers for seven years and running backs for three. Among the future NFL players he coached at State were All-Americans Lorenzo White and Andre Rison, in addition to Mark Ingram and Courtney Hawkins. Baggett coached nine bowl teams altogether during his two stints at Michigan State. He was part of the 1987 Spartan staff that defeated USC in the Rose Bowl 20-17.

Baggett started his coaching career at Bowling Green, where he worked from 1977 to 1980, and then moved on to Minnesota (1981-82) where he worked under Joe Salem before landing on campus in East Lansing.

A one-time player himself for the Spartans, Baggett was a three-year starter (1973-75) at quarterback and graduated as the school's all-time leader in total offense with 2,334 yards, earning All-Big Ten Conference honors from the Chicago Tribune as a junior after posting 1,713 total yards and 21 touchdowns (11 rushing, 10 passing). He earned a B.S. degree in food management from Michigan State in 1975. Baggett had a brief stint with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League before embarking on his coaching career. Baggett's roommate at Michigan State was former Vikings assistant coach and current Notre Dame Head Coach Tyrone Willingham.

Baggett, an All-America prep quarterback at E.E. Smith High School in Fayetteville, NC, was recruited to Michigan State by former Vikings offensive coordinator and current Detroit Lion offensive coordinator Sherman Lewis, then an assistant coach at the school. After his freshman year at nearby University of North Carolina, Baggett transferred to Michigan State and joined Lewis and the rest of the Spartans after redshirting in 1972. Among Baggett's other NFL connections is NY Jets assistant head coach Jimmy Raye, the two having grown up next door to each other in Fayetteville, N.C.

Born January 21, 1953, in Fayetteville, NC, Baggett married the former Lisa Chavis in 1999. He has one daughter, Camille (born 4/1/88). In his spare time, Baggett enjoys playing golf and fishing.

Brian Baker
LINEBACKERS

Brian Baker enters his second season as linebackers coach in 2003, his third season with the Vikings. In 2001, Baker was in charge of the defensive line before making the switch to linebackers coach prior to the 2002 season. At just 41 years old, Baker already has 7 years of coaching experience in the NFL as well as 12 years of experience at the college level.

In his first season in charge of the Vikings' linebackers, Baker guided 10-year NFL veteran MLB Greg Biekert to a career-high 4 interceptions on the season, 3rd-best by a LB in the NFL in 2002. Signed by the Vikings on 9/3/02, Biekert started every game in 2002 and proved to be a vital component on the Vikings defense posting a team-high 147 tackles. Baker also coached 6-year veteran WLB Henri Crockett to a team-high 6 tackles-for-loss and the second highest tackle total (94) despite missing two games early in the season with an elbow injury.

Baker was also instrumental in the development of rookie SLB Nick Rogers. A 6th-round draft pick out of Georgia Tech, Rogers started the last 11 games of the 2002 season. He recorded 2.0 sacks on the season, the 2nd most by a rookie in team history.

In 2001, Baker joined the Vikings to coach the defensive line. Under Baker, 2nd-year starter Chris Hovan made the move from nose tackle to under tackle and tripled his sack total in one year. Hovan led the team in sacks with 6.0 and was second in quarterback hurries with 21. Baker helped guide veteran defensive end Lance Johnstone to a team best in quarterback hurries (22) in addition to 5.5 sacks.

Baker's aggressive pressuring scheme caused 87 quarterback hurries in '01, nearly doubling the 46 recorded in '00. Also, under Baker the Vikings defensive line tallied 16 passes defensed, more than the previous two seasons combined.

The position switch to linebackers coach last season reunited Baker with his longtime colleague George O'Leary, who coached the Vikings defensive line last year and now is the Vikings Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line Coach. Baker spent 7 (1987-91; 94-95) of his 9 years (1987-95) at Georgia Tech coaching defense alongside O'Leary. O'Leary, named head coach of the Rambling Wreck in 1994, hired Baker as his outside linebackers coach that year and promoted him to defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach in '95. The Yellow Jackets defense ranked fourth in the nation against the run in '95.

Baker joined the Vikings in 2001 after spending five years as the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions. While in Detroit, he was in charge of one of the deepest defensive line rotations in the NFL. Interior linemen Luther Elliss and James Jones anchored the inside combining for 111 tackles in '00 and Elliss made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. In '99, Jones' first year in the league, he led the defensive linemen with 70 tackles and set his career-high with 7.0 sacks. Baker was also key in the development of two-time Pro Bowl left end Robert Porcher, who led the Lions with eight sacks in '00, boosting his career total to 47.

In 1999, Porcher notched 15 sacks and joined Elliss in the Pro Bowl. The 15 sacks rank 2nd-all time in Detroit history for a season, trailing only Al Baker's 23 in 1978.

The Lions' sack totals also increased under Baker from '96-00. After collecting only 32 sacks as a team in his first season in '96, in Baker's second year the defensive linemen alone recorded 31.5 sacks. The front four produced 25 sacks in '98 and topped off at 39.5 in '99.

During his four years in Detroit, Baker coached under Lions former head coach Bobby Ross. The two were first introduced in 1983, when Baker played for Ross at the University of Maryland. Following his college career, Baker coached under Ross for 12 of his 17 years at the college and professional levels. His first NFL coaching assignment came in 1996 at the age of 33, as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers under Ross.

Baker began his coaching career at the University of Maryland from '84-85 as the outside linebackers coach and spent the '86 season in charge of the fullbacks at Army. For the next nine years (1987-95) Baker served as a defensive coach at Georgia Tech.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association (A.F.C.A), Baker was the first assistant coach to serve on the group's board of trustees. From '92-95, he also served as the Chairman of the Assistant Coaches Committee for the A.F.C.A.

Baker was a 3-year letterman at outside linebacker for the University of Maryland from '81-83. He played under Terrapins head coach Bobby Ross for two seasons ('82-83). In '82 the team finished the season with a trip to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, HI. In Baker's freshman year Vikings Head Coach Mike Tice quarterbacked the Terps while John Tice and Baker were teammates from 1980-82 . In '83, Maryland was undefeated in the ACC and claimed its first conference title since 1976. That year, the Terrapins were invited to the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, FL.

Born in Baltimore, MD (6/20/62), Baker played running back, outside linebacker and ran track for the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute High School Engineers in Baltimore. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Maryland in 1985. He is married to the former Nevada Tinsley of Manhattan, NY, who earned All-America honors in track and field while attending the University of Virginia. The Bakers have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine and are also joined in their household by a niece, Norell Jackson.

Chuck Knox, Jr.

SECONDARY

Chuck Knox, Jr., is in his fourth campaign with Minnesota and enters his first season as the Vikings secondary coach. Knox spent the 2002 season as the defensive backfield coach, the 2001 season as the outside linebackers coach and the 2000 season as the defensive quality control coach. Despite being only 38 years old, Knox is already working with his fourth NFL team.

Despite having eight different players start in the defensive backfield in 2002, the unit helped Vikings finish with double the interceptions (16) it had during the 2000 and 2001 seasons (8 each year). Knox helped oversee the transition of Corey Chavous from cornerback to strong safety after the ninth game. The team then went 4-3 in their final seven games. The Vikings held the opposition under 300 yards in total offense three times in their final six games.

In 2001, Knox tutored Lemanski Hall, who finished the season tied for third on the squad in tackles with 74. He also tied for the team lead in tackles for a loss with 13.

During the 2000 season, Knox assisted the defensive coaching staff on both game day and in weekly game plan preparation. He also broke down opponent game tape and provided computer input and analysis for the defensive coaching staff. The Vikings defense finished sixth in the NFC in rushing defense. During the Vikings four game winning streak in November, over an 18-day span (11/12-11/30) the defense allowed fewer than 20 points in each of the contests.

Knox spent the 1999 campaign with the Green Bay Packers and was the defensive assistant/quality control coach on Ray Rhodes' Packers staff. The Green Bay defense finished 5th in the NFC in turnover ratio and 7th in the NFC in overall defense. At Green Bay he assisted both Emmitt Thomas (defensive coordinator) and linebackers coach Johnny Holland.

Knox spent four years with the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach prior to joining the Packers. In 1995 and '96 the club finished with 10-6 records and made the playoffs both seasons. In those two seasons the Eagles finished 4th (1995) and 5th (1996) in the NFL in overall defense.

Knox began his coaching career with the Los Angeles Rams in 1993 as an offensive assistant/running backs coach, working under his father, Chuck, Sr., who was head coach of the Rams from 1992-94. Chuck, Sr., also coached the Rams previously from 1973-77, the Buffalo Bills from 1978-82 and the Seattle Seahawks from 1983-91. The junior Knox worked closely with the running backs during the 1994 season, and helped coach Jerome Bettis to a Pro Bowl campaign.

Knox played running back at the University of Arizona from 1984-88. He was an All-State rusher at Bellevue (Wash.) High School as a senior. Earlier, before moving to Washington state after his father was named head coach of the Seahawks, he had attended Orchard Park (NY) High School his freshman through junior years. Also an All-State player as a junior in New York, Knox additionally participated in track and wrestling.

Knox, who earned a B.S. degree in history from Arizona in 1989, was born in Englewood, N.J. (2/19/65). He and his wife, Andrea, have a daughter, Hannah Marie (2/9/01) and live in Eden Prairie, MN.

Steve Loney
OFFENSIVE LINE

The 2003 season marks Steve Loney's 27th year coaching in the college and pro ranks, his second season in charge of the Vikings offensive line. Loney's coaching experience contributed to the Vikings record-breaking season in the running game in 2002. For the first time in team history, the Vikings led the NFL in rushing and set a team record with 2,507 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 2,279 set in 1965. In addition, the offensive line helped set new team records in rushing TDs (26) and yards per carry average (5.3).

Backed by solid offensive line play throughout the season, 2nd-year RB Michael Bennett posted the 2nd-best single-season rushing performance in team history with 1,296 yards. Bennett also set an NFL record for most consecutive games with a 60+ yard run with 3 (at Tampa Bay, 11/3; vs. NY Giants, 11/10; vs. Green Bay, 11/17). The offensive line opened a hole for Bennett to set a new Vikings record for the longest run from scrimmage with an 85-yard TD at Tampa Bay (11/3). Following the 2002 season, Bennett made his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Loney guided a durable offensive line in which two-time Pro Bowler Matt Birk (C), Corbin Lacina (LG) and Chris Liwienski (RT) started all 16 games. He also called upon versatile NFL veteran Everett Lindsay who saw time at three different line positions (LT, RG, LG) over the course of the season. Loney also was in charge of tutoring Vikings 1st-round draft choice Bryant McKinnie, who joined the team on 11/2/02 after ending a contract holdout. McKinnie saw action just 8 days after his arrival in Minnesota and started at LT the final 7 games of the season. The Vikings finished the season with a three-game win streak with McKinnie at LT.

Loney joined the Vikings in 2002 after his third coaching stint at his alma mater Iowa State, in which he played a key role in the Cyclones offensive attack as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under head coach Dan McCarney.

A native of Marshalltown, IA, Loney was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Iowa State for a total of five years – from '95-97 and again from '00-01. Most recently, Loney's offenses were key in Iowa State's back-to-back bowl seasons in '00-01. In 2001, the Cyclones offense averaged 423.1 yards per game and 26.9 points per game, enough to vault them to the 2001 Mainstay Independence Bowl. The Cyclones 2000 Insight.com Bowl unit averaged 424.4 yards per game, the third-best total in school history. Under Loney, the Cyclones offense produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 2,000-yard passer in '00 and '01 respectively. The offensive line was solid under Loney, allowing just 7.0 sacks in '00, the second lowest sack total nationally.

From '98-99 Loney served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota under head coach Glen Mason. In '99, the Golden Gophers finished second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation in rushing offense. Minnesota averaged 415.4 offensive yards per game and 31.6 points per game that same year. In addition to setting 5 school offensive records in '99, Loney's offense produced All-Big Ten 1st-team rusher Thomas Hamner (1,362 yards) and 1st-team All-American center Ben Hamilton.

Steve Loney's linemen have blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in 7 of the past 8 seasons. Michael Bennett's 1,296 yards is the 2nd-best single-season total in Vikings history and keyed the Vikings to lead the NFL in rushing for the first time.

Prior to his time in Minnesota, Loney spent 3 seasons at Iowa State as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. From '95-96, the Cyclones offense produced the only tailback in NCAA history to rush for a pair of 2,000-yard seasons in 1996 Heisman Trophy runner-up Troy Davis. Troy's brother, Darren, followed that feat with 1,005 yards rushing in nine games in '97. Under Loney, Iowa State ranked second in the Big 12 with an average of 231.9 yards passing per game in '97. The Cyclones ranked 13th nationally in rushing in '96 and 15th in '95.

Before joining the Iowa State staff, Loney was assistant head coach/wide receiver coach at Connecticut in 1994 and assistant offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 1993. From '89-92 he was the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Colorado State. He helped lead the Rams to the school's first bowl appearance in 48 years.

From '84-86 Loney was assistant head coach and tutored the offensive line and special teams at the Citadel. He was the head coach at Morehead State (Morehead, KY) from '81-83, after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach there from '79-80. He was the head coach at Leavenworth High School (Leavenworth, KS) from '77-78 and the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Missouri Western College (St. Joseph, MO) from '75-76.

Loney, a letterman on the offensive line for Iowa State in 1973, earned his bachelor's degree in distributed studies. He launched his coaching career in 1974 at his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach while earning his master's degree in secondary school administration.

Loney was born in Marshalltown, IA on April 26, 1952. He and his wife Terri, a former collegiate golf coach, have three children: Matt (26), Katie (24) and Kylan (21). Kylan is a junior on Arizona State's women's basketball team.

John Tice
TIGHT ENDS/ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

John Tice enters his fifth season with the Vikings and his second as the tight ends/assistant offensive line. Tice spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the tight ends coach and his first season with the club in 1999 as an offensive assistant.

In 2002, Tice coached the versatile Jim Kleinsasser to the finest season of his career. Kleinsasser, who moved from fullback to tight end for the 2002 season, had career-highs in receptions (37) and receiving yards (393). The Vikings primarily started two tight ends with Byron Chamberlain catching 34 passes. The 75 receptions by the Vikings' tight ends (Hunter Goodwin had 4) were the most by the position for the team since 1993 when they had 77 receptions.

In 2001, Tice coached tight end Chamberlain, who became the first Viking player at the position to make the Pro Bowl since Steve Jordan in 1991. Chamberlain finished the season with 57 catches, which ranked fifth best in team record books and was the most since Steve Jordan who also had 57 in 1991. With 666 yards receiving he also became only the third Vikings tight end to top the 600-yard mark.

In 2000, Tice coached a trio of tight ends that all started at one point during the season. Andrew Jordan (5 starts), John Davis (9) and Johnny McWilliams (8) each started during the season. The trio finished the season with 47 receptions. McWilliams led the tight ends with 3 touchdown receptions.

In '99 Tice worked with his brother Mike, mainly coaching the younger players on the offensive line. He also worked with the special teams' scout team and did some computer analysis.

Tice is no stranger to the National Football League, having played 10 seasons at tight end for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. He was originally a 3rd-round draft choice of the Saints in the 1983 NFL Draft. Tice played in 134 games, starting 56, in his 10-year career. He retired in 1992 due to an injured shoulder. At the time Tice left the Saints, he was 9th on the club's all-time list for receptions (158) and 11th on the all-time list for games played (134). He also had 1,602 yards receiving and 15 touchdown receptions.

From 1985-91 Tice played in 105 of a possible 108 games. During a four-year stretch from 1985-88 he caught 103 passes for 1,074 yards and 12 touchdowns. Tice's best season came in '86 when he caught a career-high 37 passes for a career-high 330 yards. In '87 he had a career-high 6 touchdown catches on 16 receptions (37.5%).

As a senior at Maryland in 1982, Tice was selected honorable mention All-America by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. He was the leading receiver on the team as a junior and senior. As a junior Tice caught passes from his brother Mike and as a senior from future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason. His head coach his senior season was former Detroit Lions and San Diego Chargers head coach Bobby Ross. Early in Tice's collegiate career he played center and tackle. Tice earned his bachelor's degree in 1983.

Prior to coming to the Vikings, Tice worked in Melbourne, FL in private business and volunteered as a football coach at several high schools. Tice took over the reins of a youth football program and was instrumental in the league tripling in size.

John Kevin Tice was born in Bayshore, NY (6/22/60) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island where his head coach was George O'Leary, the current Vikings defensive coordinator. His brother, Mike, was a quarterback at Maryland and played in the NFL at tight end for 14 seasons. Mike is the Vikings' head coach, making John and Mike the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. John and Mike combined for 265 NFL receptions, which is 8th best all-time among brother combinations (5th among two-brother combos).

John and wife Barbara have five children, John Eric (1/22/85), Michael (11/21/88), Alexis (5/26/87), and twins Carly (9/23/93) and Clayton (9/23/93). The Tice family resides in Edina and are active in youth sports programs there.

Rusty Tillman
SPECIAL TEAMS

Rusty Tillman returns to the NFL in 2003 as the Vikings special teams coach, marking his 21st NFL season as a coach and his 29th in association with the League including his 8-season playing career with the Washington Redskins. Tillman's position with the Vikings reunites him with Head Coach Mike Tice, who played for Seattle in 10 of the 16 seasons that Tillman coached the Seahawks (1981-88, 90-91). Tice was a regular on Tillman's special teams units with Seattle and Tillman served as Tice's position coach from 1983-86.

Considered one of the elite special teams coaches during his career, Tillman served as defensive coordinator for Seattle during 1992-94, Tampa Bay in 1995 and Indianapolis in 1998. He became a head coach when he took the reins of the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen for their spring 2001 season.

Tillman's coverage teams have only allowed 1 kickoff return TD in 839 returns. In his tenure, Tillman's teams have been known for their aggressive play and forcing turnovers. His teams have blocked 16 punts and allowed only 6 blocks, with 5 of those coming in his first two seasons coaching. In his last 13 seasons, Tillman's punt teams allowed only 1 block. His coverage teams have held opponents to an average punt return of 7.4 yards and an average kickoff return of 18.4 yards in his career.

During Tillman's NFL special teams coaching career he has guided a pair of Seattle coverage men to Pro Bowl berths, sending Fredd Young to Hawaii following the 1984 and '85 seasons and Rufus Porter following the 1988 and '89 campaigns. In 1986 Bobby Joe Edmonds represented the Seahawks as the AFC's kick returner in the Pro Bowl. Tillman placed a Seahawk special teamer in the Pro Bowl in 1984, '85, '86, '88 and '89 and saw Young move from making the AFC team as a coverage man in 1984 and '85 to making it as a starting LB in 1986 and '87.

Edmonds led the NFL in punt returns in '86 with a 12.3 yard average and led the AFC in '87 at 12.6 yards per return. In '83, kickoff returner Zachary Dixon led the NFL in returns (49) and return yards (1,448) while James Jefferson's 97-yard return was the longest in the AFC in 1989. Tillman oversaw Seattle punter Jeff West lead the AFC with a 36.1 net punting average in 1981.

For the final 3 seasons he spent in Seattle (1992-94), Tillman served as defensive coordinator and coached the Seahawk LBs. In 1993 Eugene Robinson led the NFL with 9 interceptions and in '92 Cortez Kennedy posted a career-best 14.0 sacks. Kennedy earned trips to the Pro Bowl as a starter in each of those 3 seasons and Robinson earned a Pro Bowl nod following the 1993 season.

In 1995 Tillman became defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The '95 Bucs improved from 26th in the NFL in run defense the year before to 15th under Tillman. A pair of Tillman's defenders, future NFL Defensive Players of the Year and perennial Pro Bowlers Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, were named to numerous All-Rookie teams in 1995. The '95 Bucs posted the best record since the 1981 team and allowed 20.9 points per game, the 335 points allowed during the season were the fewest since 268 in 1981.

While serving as special teams coach with Oakland in 1996 and '97, Tillman helped Desmond Howard set team records and lead the AFC in 1997 in kickoff returns (61), yards (1,318) and kickoff return yards in a single game with 223 on 10 returns at Seattle. Punter Leo Araguz also led the AFC with a 39.1 net punting average and 93 punts in '97.

In 1998 Tillman took over as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts, helping improve the Colts pass rush. The team posted 38 sacks on the season, the most since 1992 and DT Ellis Johnson set his career-high with 8.0 sacks. Rookie DT Larry Chester joined the team as an undrafted rookie free agent, spending time on the practice squad before being activated and starting 2 of the 14 games he played en route to earning a spot on the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team.

In 2001 Tillman was named head coach of the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen. The team went 4-6 and was a game away from qualifying for the postseason. The NY/NJ franchise ranked 2nd in the 10-team league in attendance, playing their home games at Giants Stadium.

During Tillman's 8 seasons as a player with the Washington Redskins from 1970-77 he was a standout special teams player and LB, earning a spot on the Redksins 70th Anniversary Team in 2001. The Redskins earned playoff berths in 5 of his 8 seasons and played in Super Bowl VII following the 1972 season. During his final 7 seasons as a player, Tillman played for legendary coach George Allen. As a rookie in 1970 Tillman played for Vince Lombardi before his death. Tillman's Redskin clubs were successful, posting a 73-38-1 record during his tenure. Following the 1973 and 1976 seasons Washington lost to the Vikings at Met Stadium in the playoffs.

As a collegian, Tillman starred at Northern Arizona as a DE, LB, P and TE, setting the Lumberjacks school record for punting average at 44.5 yards and was named to the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 1984. Tillman started his college career as a walk-on at Arizona before transferring to NAU.

Tillman (2/27/46) was born in Beloit, WI. He and his wife, Lorri, have three sons Joshua, Jason and Jacob and a daughter, Rachael. Tillman also has a daughter, Emily.

Steve Wetzel
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Since Steve Wetzel joined the Minnesota Vikings as strength and conditioning coach in 1992, the quality of his program has been evident in the team's record and number of playoff appearances. Another indicator of the job Wetzel has done in Minnesota is that three of his assistants — Mike Wolf (Philadelphia), Mark Asanovich (Tampa Bay and Jacksonville) and Jeff Friday (Baltimore) — have gone on to become head strength and conditioning coaches with other National Football League teams.

In Wetzel's 11 seasons with Minnesota, the team finished with a winning record eight times. In '98, the team started the season with seven straight victories and ended even stronger with eight consecutive wins. The team finished with the best record in franchise history with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. In '97, the Vikings had their greatest postseason comeback in team history, coming back from 16 points down to defeat the N.Y. Giants 23-22.

Over the past 11 years, the Vikings have posted one of the best regular season records (103-73, .585) in the NFL. Minnesota has won at least their last three games of the season four times since 1992 ('93-3 straight games, '98-8, '99-3, '02-3). The Vikings had only accomplished that feat three other times in their first 31 seasons. Minnesota also has played well in the fourth quarter the past 11 years. The Vikings' not only have won 27 games that they trailed in the fourth quarter since '92 but are 80-15 with a lead entering the final period over the past 11 seasons.

In his 13 NFL seasons, Wetzel has been with teams that have gone 127-81 (.611) and made the playoffs 10 times, including '91 when he was on Washington's Super Bowl XXVI Championship staff. In his two seasons (1990-91) as assistant strength coach for the Redskins, the team posted a 28-9 (.757) record, including playoffs.

Before joining Washington, Wetzel spent four months as strength coach for George Mason University, the first strength coach ever hired at the University. He was the assistant strength coach at the University of Maryland from 1985-89. In his first season there, the Terrapins finished 9-2, won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and defeated Syracuse in the Cherry Bowl.

Wetzel earned his degree in physical education/sports management from Slippery Rock University, where he was a power lifter. He is a former record holder in the bench press in the American Drug Free Power Lifting Association. In '98, Wetzel received the President's Award for contributions to his profession as selected by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

A native of Washington, DC, Wetzel (5/11/63) attended Park View High in Sterling, VA. Steve and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Samantha (11/1/01) and reside in Eden Prairie.

Willie Shaw

ASSISTANT COACH/SPECIAL PROJECTS

Willie Shaw enters his 16th season in the National Football League as the Vikings assistant coach/special projects. The 2003 season marks Shaw's fifth with the Vikings. From '92-93, Shaw coached the secondary and helped guide the Vikings to two straight playoff appearances. He has been with the team since 2001 in various roles, including defensive coordinator in 2002 and assistant head coach/defensive backs in 2001.

A 34-year coaching veteran, Shaw has coached defense on seven NFL teams, as well as five college programs. Shaw returned to Minnesota in 2001, after spending the 2000 season as assistant head coach/defensive backs coach for a Kansas City Chiefs secondary which included two-time Pro Bowl CB James Hasty.

Prior to his time in Kansas City, Shaw was instrumental in the revival of the Oakland Raiders defense. In '97, the Raiders ranked 30th in total defense (382.2 yards per game). In his first season as the team's defensive coordinator in '98, Shaw coached the Raiders to the league's fifth-best total defense. In only one year, the Raiders showed an improvement of 97.8 yards per game. In '99, the Raiders improvement continued, ranking in the top half of the league in every major defensive category.

That year, the Saints finished the season ranked sixth in the league in both total and passing defense. From '95-96, Shaw served as the defensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams and in '94 coached the San Diego Charger defensive backs all the way to Super Bowl XXIX.

From '89-93, Shaw coached under former Vikings head coach Dennis Green – first in the college ranks at Stanford, then at the pro level in Minnesota. In '90, Shaw's second coaching stint at Stanford, the Cardinal defeated top-ranked Notre Dame in South Bend. The next year, the team enjoyed its longest winning streak (7) since '51, most PAC-10 victories since '70, and first bowl appearance since '86. During Shaw's two-year term with the Vikings ('92-93), the secondary produced impressive results. In '92, Minnesota led the NFL in interceptions with 28 and tied for second with 24 in '93. Of the eight players that intercepted five or more passes in '92, three were Vikings. That same year, 1st-year starters in the secondary Audray McMillian and Todd Scott made the Pro Bowl. In '93, the Vikings finished the season as the NFL's top-ranked defense.

Shaw spent his first four years in the NFL with the Detroit Lions ('85-88).

Born in Glenmora, LA (1/11/44), Shaw earned All-America honors as a senior DB and captain at New Mexico before transferring to San Diego State. He earned his undergraduate degree in physical education and his master's degree in education from SDSU. Willie and wife Gay have three children – Tawnya, Eric and David. David spent four years as an assistant with the Oakland Raiders and currently coaches QBs and WRs for the Baltimore Ravens.

Paul Wiggin

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

In over four decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been a part of many teams that have finished among the league's best. Wiggin is responsible for the division that evaluates all NFL players plus doing the advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents.

During his 18 years with Minnesota, the team has won five NFC Central titles and qualified for the playoffs 11 times, including 8-of-the-past-11 seasons. Wiggin originally joined the Vikings in '85 as defensive line coach, a position he held for seven seasons. During that stint, Minnesota led the league in total defense twice ('88 and '89). In '87 the Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship Game before losing 17-10 to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In '89, the Vikings posted 71 sacks, the second most in a season in NFL history. Defensive end Chris Doleman set a league season record with 21 sacks, while defensive tackle Keith Millard added 18 sacks — the third most in a season in NFL history. In addition to Doleman and Millard, Wiggin also helped develop Pro Bowl defensive tackles Henry Thomas and John Randle.

Wiggin came to Minnesota after working with the highly-successful Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee in '84. From 1980-83, Wiggin was the head coach at Stanford University, where he oversaw future NFL first-round draft choices John Elway, Darrin Nelson and Brian Holloway.

In 1978-79, Wiggin was the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. After not winning more than five games in any of their previous 11 seasons, the Saints posted seven victories in '78 and eight in '79.

His first head coaching opportunity came at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1975-77. Wiggin's first NFL win came in a 42-10 victory over Oakland, who went on to capture the AFC West title in '75. The Chiefs won three straight and five-of-their-next seven games, including a 34-31 upset of that year's NFC Champion Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football at Texas Stadium.

Immediately after retiring from his playing career in '68, Wiggin became the defensive line coach in San Francisco. Despite inheriting a 49ers squad that hadn't been to the playoffs since '57, Wiggin was part of a staff that guided San Francisco to three straight division titles from 1970-72 and the NFC Championship Game in '70 and '71. During his stint there, Wiggin tutored the top two sackers (Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart) in 49ers history. Hardman also set a team season record for sacks with 18 in '71. In '74 Wiggin was promoted to defensive coordinator for San Francisco.

In 11 seasons (1957-67) as a defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight regular-season games, which stood as a team record when he retired. His 18 career fumble recoveries still rank as the second most in Browns history. During his tenure there, Cleveland played in three NFL title games, including a 27-0 win over Baltimore in '64. He started in the Pro Bowl in '65 and '67. In addition, Wiggin was named the team's Outstanding Defensive Player in '63, the Browns' Player of the Year in '66 and the Cleveland Pro Athlete of the Year in '67. Most recently, Wiggin was named by Sports Illustrated's Dr. Z and by Football Digest to the Cleveland Browns' all-time team. During Wiggin's tenure with Cleveland he played with rookie DE Jim Marshall in 1960 before he went on to star with the Vikings the following season.

The Browns drafted Wiggin as a future pick in the 6th round in '56. As a three-year starter at tackle for Stanford, Wiggin earned 1st-team All-Pac 10 and 1st-team All-America honors in both '55 and '56. Wiggin was named the Stanford Defensive Player of the Century in fan balloting. He also played rugby for the Cardinal.

A native of Modesto, CA (11/18/34), Paul David Wiggin competed in four sports and was the Most Outstanding Athlete at Manteca (CA) Union High School in '52. He also set league records in the shot put as a prepster. Wiggin earned his bachelor's degree from Stanford in '56 and his master's in education from Stanford in '59. During his off-seasons as a player, he taught high school and college classes, and coached defensive tackles at spring practice for Stanford. He and wife Carolynn have three children — Kymberly (3/22/61), Kristyn (6/6/63) and Kellie (7/4/67) — and seven grandchildren.

CLASS OF CLEVELAND

Following his stellar 11-year NFL career with the Cleveland Browns, Paul Wiggin continues to rank among the storied franchise's greatest players. In its December 2002 issue, Football Digest named Wiggin to the Browns' All-Time team.

Frank Gilliam has been a big factor in the success of the Vikings' drafts over the past three plus decades. Gilliam has served in many roles with the club, beginning in 1970 as Scouting Director. He served as the Director of Player Personnel from 1974-93 before becoming the Vice President of Player Personnel in 1994. In 2002 he moved into the role of Senior Consultant/Player Personnel. Scott Studwell (9th, '77), Joe Senser (6th, '79), Wade Wilson (8th, '81), Steve Jordan (7th, '82), Carl Lee (7th, '83), Steve Bono (6th, '85), Terry Allen (9th, '90), John Randle (FA, '90), Todd Scott (6th, '91), Ed McDaniel (5th, '92), Brad Johnson (9th, '92), Robert Griffith (FA, '94), Matt Birk (6th, '98) each were selected to at least one Pro Bowl.

Prior to coming to Minnesota, Gilliam tutored wide receivers from 1966-70 at Iowa. While teaching at Lord Tennyson Elementary/Junior High School in Vancouver from 1962-65, Gilliam coached the North Shore Cougars, a Canadian junior football team.

A 7th-round draft choice by Green Bay in '57, Gilliam spent three seasons with Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League, where he played for former Minnesota head coach Bud Grant and was a teammate of Leo Lewis, Sr., whose son Leo, Jr. is a former Vikings wide receiver and the team's current Director of Player Development. The Blue Bombers played in the Grey Cup game in '57 and won the league championship in '58 and '59. Gilliam played for Vancouver of the CFL from 1960-61.

Named as a defensive end on the University of Iowa's all-time team, Gilliam helped the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten title in '56, when he earned All-Big Ten and 2nd-team All-America honors. In the ensuing Rose Bowl, the school's first bowl game, Iowa beat Oregon State, 35-19, to finish third in the nation. During that '56 season, the Hawkeyes' defense held opponents to 8.4 points per game, the lowest ever at the school, and 229.8 yards per game, third fewest in Iowa's history. Gilliam, who played in the '57 Hula Bowl, was also a member of the '53 Iowa squad that ended the year ranked 9th in the country. He led the Hawkeyes in receiving in '53 and '54.

Gilliam (1/7/34) attended Steubenville, OH, High School. His nephew is the late Joe Gilliam, Jr., who played quarterback for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-75. at the time was the 7th longest interception return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63. As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. He was the Director of Football Operations in '75 and became Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in '92. Reichow is currently a National Scout looking at prospects throughout the country.

During his off-the-field tenure with the Vikings, Reichow's main contributions have come in the college draft. Not only has Minnesota done well with its early choices, but the team has had great success in finding top players with its late-round selections. Among those selections are Bobby Bryant (7th round, 1967), Scott Studwell (9th, '77), Joe Senser (6th, '79), Wade Wilson (8th, '81), Steve Jordan (7th, '82), Carl Lee (7th, '83), Steve Bono (6th, '85), Terry Allen (9th, '90), John Randle (FA, '90), Todd Scott (6th, '91), Ed McDaniel (5th, '92), Brad Johnson (9th, '92) and Matt Birk (6th, '98), who each have been selected to at least one Pro Bowl. Since '94 seven Minnesota players have made the NFL's All-Rookie team.

His best year came in his initial campaign with the Vikings when he caught 50 passes for 859 yards and 11 touchdowns to become one of Minnesota's first two Pro Bowl selections. Reichow finished 12th in the NFL in catches and tied for fourth in the league in scoring receptions in '61. The 11 touchdown catches stood as the team's season record until Cris Carter surpassed it in '95. Reichow also led the Vikings in scoring in '61. Against Chicago on Dec. 17, 1961, Reichow became the first Minnesota player to catch three touchdown passes in a game. He also led the Vikings in catches in '62 despite missing two games. In '63 he caught a career-long 57-yard scoring toss from Fran Tarkenton against the Rams (10/20). In four seasons as a wide receiver and tight end with Minnesota, Reichow caught 144 passes for 2,183 yards and 19 touchdowns, all of which were team career records when he retired.

Drafted by Detroit in the 4th round in '56, Reichow played quarterback, tight end and receiver during his four seasons with the Lions. He helped the Lions capture the NFL title in '57. In '60 he was traded to Philadelphia, where he was a teammate of Norm Van Brocklin on the Eagles' squad that won the league championship. The next year he was dealt to Washington who immediately sent him to Minnesota, where Van Brocklin had just been named head coach.

As a senior at Iowa, Reichow finished 7th in the nation in total offense with 1,091 yards. CLASS REUNION

The 2002 Vikings season featured the reuniting of a pair of high school classmates. Vikings WR D'Wayne Bates and S Corey Chavous were classmates at Silver Bluff High School in Aiken, SC. The duo had not played together since their prep days when Bates was a QB and Chavous a WR. The pair came very close to being college teammates but Chavous chose Vanderbilt instead of Northwestern. Both stepped into key roles for the Vikings in 2002 and enjoyed the best seasons of their careers. Bates had a career-best 50 catches and 4 TDs while Chavous set career-highs for tackles and INTs along with scoring his 1st NFL TD on a 43-yard INT return at Detroit in the season finale.

NFL EUROPE LEAGUE HELPS VIKINGS DEVELOPMENT

Vikings Pro Bowl TE Byron Chamberlain turned his NFL Europe experience into increased playing time during his career with the Broncos and is a prime example of the Vikings players who have benefitted from spending the off-season overseas in the NFL Europe League. Vikings OL Everett Lindsay played for the Barcelona Dragons in 1997, starting at LT as he worked himself back into playing condition after suffering a season-ending knee injury that cost him the 1996 season.

In 2002, Vikings TE Jeff Kostrewa helped lead Berlin to World Bowl X and OL Lewis Kelly started all season for Frankfurt. The 2003 NFL Europe class included QB Shaun Hill (Amsterdam), P Nick Murphy (Barcelona), K Todd France (Rhein) and OL Kenny Sandlin (Scotland). Hill led NFLE in passing yards and TDs while Murphy was Europe's leading punter and tied for the lead in pinning opponents inside the 20. Murphy was named to the All-NFL Europe team and France helped Rhein earn a berth in World Bowl XI where they were defeated by Berlin. Sandlin was a regular starter for the Scottish team that led NFL Europe with 4,169 total yards and paved the way for RB Ken Simonton to lead NFLE in rushing with 871 yards on 162 carries (5.4avg.) and lead NFLE with 10 TDs.

History

VIKINGS LORE

FRANCHISE FOUNDED — Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami, FL, on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P Skoglund, Ole Haugsrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin is selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960, running back Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were quarterback Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and defensive back Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were guard Grady Alderman from Detroit and running back Hugh McElhenny from San Francisco.

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the National Football League assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961, in the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962, running back Hugh McElhenny and wide receiver Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

FIRST ALL-PRO — In 1963 running back Tommy Mason, who was the team's first ever draft choice, was the first Vikings player to earn All-Pro recognition. He was a consensus pick after rushing for 763 yards and 7 touchdowns on 166 carries (4.6 avg.).

FINKS HIRED — In September, 1964, Jim Finks was named the team's second general manager, succeeding Bert Rose, who resigned in June, 1964. Finks previously had served as general manager for Calgary of the Canadian Football League for 7 years.

FIRST WINNING SEASON — Minnesota won its final 3 regular-season games in 1964 to achieve the first winning season in team history with an 8-5-1 record. The Vikings tied for 2nd in the NFL Western Conference behind Baltimore.

MET EXPANDED — A new grandstand was constructed on the east side of Metropolitan Stadium that increased capacity from 41,200 to 47,200. The new seats were formally dedicated on Aug. 20, 1965, when Minnesota played Philadelphia in a preseason game.

NFL RE-ALIGNED — On Dec. 2, 1966, Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay were chosen to make up the newly-formed Central Division of the Western Conference of the NFL.

VAN BROCKLIN RESIGNS — After compiling a 29-51-4 record while leading the Vikings in their first six years of existence, Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin resigned in February, 1967. His best season was 1964, when he led the team to a tie for 2nd place in the NFL Western Conference with an 8-5-1 record.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 21 seasons (1982-2002) at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 42-year history. Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota. ■ On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over the next 22 years the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981, marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year. The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,121. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 21 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 112-61 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2003 season marks the Vikings' 22nd campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, a season longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. ■ The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000 and 2003 and the 2001 NCAA Men's Final Four.

This summer, don't miss the excitement as the Minnesota Vikings take on a rugged NFL pre-season schedule only on KSTP-TV, Channel 5! Led by play-by-play announcer Curt Menefee and color announcer Brian Baldinger, Channel 5 promises deep coverage as the Minnesota Vikings tune up for their regular season. Menefee and Baldinger are broadcast veterans, having been part of the FOX NFL broadcasting team for years. They'll be joined by Channel 5 Sports Director Joe Schmit, who will handle sideline reporting.

Starting with the first regular season game on September 7, Channel 5 and the Vikings present Vikings GameDay, a weekly pregame show at 10:30 a.m. each Sunday. Hosted in 2002 by Joe Schmit and former Viking Mike Morris, it's an inside look at the upcoming game from the players, coaches and the fans. Featured segments include: Vintage Vikings, a look at past players and their glories; Vikings Lifestyle, an inside look at the players lives; and Flag on the Play. It's the best way to get up close and inside the Vikings on game day! Fans can participate in the audience on the Metrodome Plaza for Sunday games with a Noon start (9/28, 10/19, 10/26, 11/23 and 12/7) or at Eden Prairie Center on Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m. for all other weeks except Thanksgiving. Don't miss Vikings GameDay, Sundays at 10:30 a.m., starting September 7th on Channel 5.

Menefee is entering his 7th season calling NFL games on FOX as well as NFL Europe. Menefee began his NFL experience as a sideline reporter for FOX in 1997. One of New York's most popular sportscasters, Menefee won the 1996 Associated Press Award for Best Sports Reporter in New York. Prior to the move to the Big Apple, Menefee was a sports director and weeknight anchor at a pair of stations in Dallas along with hosting a daily 2-hour sports show on The Ticket sports radio. Menefee also has experience at stations in Jacksonville, Madison and Des Moines. He is a graduate of Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Baldinger is in his 7th season as an analyst for NFL on FOX and has covered NFL Europe action during that time as well. A former offensive lineman with the Dallas Cowboys and Philadelphia Eagles, Baldinger has a unique perspective on preseason NFL action. Signed by Dallas as an undrafted rookie in 1982 he battled his way onto the Cowboys roster. Baldinger was the lone rookie free agent from a pool of 107 rookies that earned a roster spot in 1982. He went on to play for Dallas from 1982-84 and again from '86-87. From 1988-91 Baldinger played for the Colts, earning their Most Valuable Lineman award in 1991 before finishing his playing career with the Eagles in 1992-93. A 1982 graduate of Duke, Baldinger made the transition from TE to offensive line and transferred to the Blue Devils from Nassau (NY) Community College.

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his second season as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen again in the radio booth handling the color commentary for the 2003 Vikings season will be former Vikings TE Joe Senser.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

The role will be familiar for Senser, who handled Vikings color commentary in 1993-94 and since 2001. Senser played for the Vikings from 1979-84. Senser ranks 3rd in Vikings history among tight ends for catches (165), TDs (16) and earned a berth in the Pro Bowl following the 1981 season.

Joining Allen and Senser again from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 3rd in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Joe Senser, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and KOOL 108 (107.9 FM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.

WINTER PARK - VIKINGS HEADQUARTERS

Dedicated in 1981, the Vikings Winter Park headquarters and training facility at 9520 Viking Drive in Eden Prairie, MN, have evolved with the times and the face of professional football. Named for former Vikings owner Max Winter, the Winter Park facility sits at the intersection of Highways 494 and 169 on Viking Drive in Eden Prairie.

Housed in the facility are the teams executive offices, coaches offices and all elements of the team's football operation including the Vikings locker room, practice fields, weight rooms, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities and cafeteria. The 3,000 square foot Vikings strength training facility features state of the art weight lifting and cardiovascular machines. The outdoor facilities include two 100-yard natural grass practice fields and a 50-yard turf field. The newest addition to the facility is a 100-yard indoor practice field that stands 90 feet tall at its apex. Built with the dual role of housing the NFC Champion Washington Redskins during Super Bowl XXV week preparations, the fieldhouse is regularly used by the team for practices and has been useful for community events and charitable endeavors.

The Vikings sales and marketing departments are located directly across the street from Winter Park at Olympic Place, 7825 Washington Avenue, Suite 700, Bloomington, MN and can be contacted at 952-918-8500. The Vikings ticket office is at the Metrodome, 500 11th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN, and can be contacted at 612-338-4537.

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL 101 WORKSHOP

The successful Women's Football 101 Workshop will again be held at the Vikings Winter Park headquarters this season. Scheduled for September 27, 2003, the event will be open to a maximum of 1,000 participants and feature presentations by Vikings coaches and players designed to give women insight into football from the pros. The event has gained popularity each season since its first installment with the Vikings in 1997.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional.

The Ed Block Courage Award has become one of the most prestigious awards a player can receive because no other national football award is chosen solely by a vote of his peers. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide—

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.
